

VANNI goes arty 2008

The relationship between design and contemporary art. Is there a possible synergy between the two and how the focus on a particular territory reconciles with the goal of both of addressing a global public and economy?

Stella Scala (artist in the Vedovamazzei duo)

I think art and design should work separately. As an artist I would never talk of my work as production, which to me means in series. Design gives an object a function and an artistic side, but in series. The artist creates – though not in any omnipotent way – and works on an object, but doesn't design an object. The function of art lies in enjoyment of the art. When art becomes design and vice versa it gives rise to a hybrid, which I reject.
